President's Letter

Dear SWRC-CAMFT Members,

Happy Fall everyone! As we notice the slight changes with the season and the decorations in the stores, it's a reminder to us that the year is coming to an end. I have enjoyed being your President this year and being a part of the SWRC Board. I have held many of the other board positions and it has helped me to value SWRC and support me in my field. I would like to ask you all to think about what this Chapter can do for you and more importantly what you can do for the Chapter. We have had people in positions for numerous years and they have chosen to retire from the board and allow new clinician's and intern's to follow in their steps. Please step up and help out, we really need you to make this Chapter work well. There are many perks to being on the board and being involved. A few of our Board members have gone on to take positions at the State CAMFT level. I am happy to answer any questions about the different positions and you will be fully trained. The commitment is minimal, a one hour board meeting each month and no more than two hours extra doing your Board duties. Please email me if you are interested.

I look forward to seeing you all at the Chapter meetings. Be well, be blessed, and be amazing.

DID YOU KNOW?
SWRC recently
attained it's CAMFT
continuing education
provider approval
(CEPA) number and is considered a quality
continuing education
provider. Yeah us!

Last month we heard from The Soldiers Project as well as two Behavioral Health Officers from the Army National Guard, who filled us in on what therapists need to know in order to serve the military community well. The Soldiers Project is a non-profit organization that created a network of therapists who offer pro bono sessions to veterans who have served post-9/11 and their family members. Therapist volunteers will have access to peer-consultation groups and free trainings. Therapists can apply to offer sessions for one or more clients at a time. Follow this link to apply to volunteer:
